CareerSource Chipola celebrated their Annual Meeting August 11, 2022, in Marianna, Florida.

In addition to hearing from multiple success stories the organization named new officers for the upcoming year. Debbie Kolmetz from Holmes County was installed as the new chair, David Corbin from Washington County is the new vice-chair and Travis Ephriam from Jackson County is the new secretary/treasurer for CareerSource Chipola.

Though Ms. Kolmetz was absent, her sister and outgoing Board Chair, Janice Sumner, accepted on her behalf.

CareerSource Chipola also recognized Probe's Unlimited, Inc. as the Hopkins Employer of the Year and Donnie Read of Liberty County as the Hollingsworth Board Member of the Year. Both of these awards are named after former board members, Bill Hopkins and Jean Hollingsworth, who were outstanding representatives of their respective communities and made significant contributions to forwarding the mission of CareerSource Chipola.

Outgoing Board Chair, Janice Sumner of Calhoun County, was recognized for her service. As well as previous Board Chair, Arthur Obar.

Sumner thanked those in attendance for giving her the opportunity to lead the organization and said she was grateful to be part of an organization that is doing so much to help employers as well as job seekers in the area.

CareerSource Chipola is a non-profit corporation providing job skill training and employment services in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington Counties. CSC works with multiple education facilities as well as state and local agencies to help our residents obtain and maintain employment as well as working with employers to help them find the workforce they need. The majority of CSC board members must come from the private sector.
